

Finish of the dog derby at Berlin, N. H., showing Arthur T. Walden's team of homebred huskies coming in strong at the end of 120 miles. Walden is a Yukon gold rush veteran and brought back to his New Hampshire farm the sire of this winning team. Underwood & Underwood.

Sensational play in the recent international Rugby match at Cardiff. Photo shows Delahay of Wales clear with the ball. His team defeated England's by 28 points to 6, a distinct shock. Central News.

Chicago women have the advantage of an automobile repair school run by the Board of Education. Advanced training is given in finding engine troubles and fixing tires. P. & A.

Money is the commonest and most plentiful thing in Austria these days—but it doesn't mean anything. Picture shows large hampers containing 17,500,000 kronen being carried into the bank. Sometimes 100 kronen are worth one American cent. International.

Palm Beach is drawing almost every prominent person in society and finance these days. Photograph shows Mrs. Jorge André and Mr. J. Leonard Replogle out for a stroll. Wide World.

This funeral of a dog cost $5,200. Rex, a prize bulldog, was the animal, and Dr. Parker Hyde of Hoboken, N. J., the owner who spent this amount to honor his pet. The coffin was silk lined and burial was made in a regular dog cemetery. Rex was sixteen years old. International.

Lucy Gates, American prima donna, who appears in recital for the first time in New York on February 28. She has been heard frequently in concert. Dupont.

A fire in the United States Treasury building in Washington is a most unusual occurrence. On February 8 last a gasoline torch set fire to a barrel of tar on the roof with the result pictured here. Troops guarded the building while the firemen worked. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.